

3-25-08
Baycliff Civic League Meeting
15 in attendance

Meeting was called to order by Jim Joyner, Vice President, introduced Peg Nelson, Director of Public Relations with the Sandler Center.

Peg Nelson described in detail the vision of the Sandler Center, and several events which it has already had. They are offering school day workshops and have many other educational missions. They are catering to the youth, trying to involve them in the arts.

MINUTES: read by Paula McGowan, recording secretary

TREASURER'S REPORT: Bob Swank went over the budget, parking lot needs repair by boat dock. Mrs. Swank asked that we move the majority of monies into an account which earns higher interest, with no penalties if needed to be withdrawn. Will look into long term CD's without penalties and advise.

OLD BUSINESS:

Melissa Hickey and Jill Frasier were thanked for the successful Easter Egg hunt, with 100 children in attendance. All went well, very smooth.

Neighborhood yard sale April 26, contact Anna Slade if interested in participating. 8 a.m. through 2 p.m.

Need to vote in new officers for next year, all positions need to be replaced with new officers. Ballots due by May.

Jim Joyner spoke about petition for Phase 3 regarding traffic calming, and his plan to get door to door signatures.

Bob Swank made calls to construction company which damages boat dock area when delivering materials. Sod was placed instead of grass seed and logs were strategically placed by ramp. Bob explained that chain at boat dock wasn't cut by vandals, but by utility company who needed access to area.

Neighbor voiced concern regarding youth activity in evenings, running across roof at Alanton Elementary in the dark. Police were called, but arrived too late to catch them.

Discussion regarding woods by ABRC pool. No one minds children playing in woods, parents walking dogs, etc., however, no trespassing signs were placed to try and ward off paintballers who caused much damage at the pool house and surrounding areas.

No New Business

Meeting adjourned 8:06 p.m.
